

EXHIBITION SERIES

KATHLEEN SAUERBIER (1903 – 1991)

In collaboration with prominent McLaren Vale wine producer, the Galvanized Wine Group (makers of Penny's Hill, Mr. Riggs and The Black Chook), Carrick Hill is proud to announce a new range for the Exhibition Series funding initiative coinciding with the opening of the Kathleen Sauerbier retrospective at Carrick Hill. Each case of Exhibition Series wine sold will generate substantial funds and provide a direct link to our major exhibitions.

Not widely known even to this day, Kathleen Sauerbier is a unique South Australian artist whose bold modernist compositions with their daring and varied use of colour reflect an artist devoted to the pursuit of a modern and simple aesthetic. It seems only fitting that the Exhibition Series pay tribute to an artist that drew great inspiration from the landscape of the Port Willunga region. 'Ochre Cliffs and Gull Rock, looking south from Maslin Beach' c 1933 is a feature of the Hayward collection at Carrick Hill and a key work in the Sauerbier exhibition which will be on display from 11 March until 26 June 2011.

MCLAREN VALE SHIRAZ 2008

The wine is a typically fruit driven McLaren Vale Shiraz, especially selected for the Exhibition Series. An appropriate choice as Kathleen lived at Port Willunga and took great inspiration from the landscape of the region.

ADELAIDE HILLS SAUVIGNON BLANC 2010

Especially chosen for the Exhibition Series, this wonderful fresh, crisp Sauvignon Blanc is just the style of wine a daring young artist would have enjoyed in the making of works "en plein air".
